

DAIRY fun DAY

Fill in the blanks for a friend to make a story about a funny day at The Creamery!

One summer day, there were three little ANIMALS who went on an NOUN to The Creamery.

The first little SAME ANIMAL visited Lily's PLACE #1. They VERB some FOOD, ADVERB up the NOUN and said, "My oh my, summer is ADJECTIVE!"

The second little SAME ANIMAL visited Lily's PLACE #2 where they made DAIRY FOOD #1 that were oh so ADJECTIVE! When they finished eating, the second little SAME ANIMAL said, "My oh my, that was ADJECTIVE in my BODY PART!"

And last but surely not least, the third little SAME ANIMAL visited Lily's PLACE #3 and asked for Utah's tallest DAIRY FOOD #2! The chef said, "My oh my! I shall make it as tall as a NOUN!"

When the fun summer day at The Creamery came to an end, the three little SAME ANIMAL (PLURAL) smiled and said, "NON-ANIMAL NOISE all the way home!"

So dairy many!

There are about 180 dairy farms in Utah.
